

TESTIMONIALS

Mr. Reiter's presentation on gangs raised the level of awareness with our first and second year teachers and allowed them to be more proactive in dealing with our students. He has been extremely responsive to the vast needs of our students at our school! He builds strong relationships with the students allowing them a strong comfort level with an authority figure. We truly appreciate everything he does here at our school!

Lisa C., Assistant High School Principal

Mr. Reiter offered a comprehensive, multimedia training experience to the team of school-based counselors I supervise. The training provided a high level review of the myths and realities of how gangs recruit, operate and flourish, as well as, a gritty and real ground level view of gang culture.

John B., Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator

I wanted to take a minute and inform you that Mr. Reiter's assistance has been very beneficial here at our school. I believe that the sharing of information and working together to gather intelligence about the gangs and their members on campus can have a significant impact when it comes to safety on campus. I look forward to his next visit and the assistance that he provides. I feel that by working together in identifying known members and associates it allows us the opportunity to assess the current threat level and be able to respond appropriately with minimal disruption.

Steve W., School Resource Officer

I just wanted to take a minute to acknowledge and commend Mr. Reiter. He has been instrumental in intelligence gathering and identifying youth in our community who are "at-risk" or involved in gang-related activities. He has been an asset to me and my daily duties as a police officer. Mr. Reiter should be commended for his dedication to his job and for his usable information!

Kati P., Gang Intelligence Officer

GANG EDUCATION & COMMUNITY RESPONSE TRAINING

Ryan Reiter has over 10 years working with individuals with diverse backgrounds. Mr. Reiter is currently employed as the At-Risk Students Intervention Liaison by a large metropolitan school district which serves over 130,000 students. He assists in the identification of students who have demonstrated a need to participate in programs offered by community-based human service agencies. He works daily with students who have been identified as being pressured into joining a gang, are associating with known or admitted gang members, or are self-admitted gang members. In addition to these one-on-one interviews with "at-risk" kids, Mr. Reiter maintains open lines of communication with probation officers, court counselors, school administrators, local law enforcement agencies, and most importantly, concerned parents.
